UNION CHURCH SERVICES OPEN

Rev. Carl V. Roop To Preach at First U. B. Church Sunday Night.

The annual summer season of union church services will open Sunday night at Prospect Street Methodist church with a young people's meeting at 7 and a worship service at 8.

Rev. Carl V. Roop of First United Brethren church will deliver the sermon and young people of his church will be in charge of the meeting at 7.

The sermon will be on "The Great Teacher."

Following is the order of the worship service:

Organ prelude, from the "Andante, 3th Symphony," by Tchaikovsky, Mrs. Robert Y. Smith; hymn, "The Church's One Foundation," congregation; anthem, "O God, The Rock of Ages," by Ruebush, by Prospect Street church choir, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Y. Smith; Scripture lesson, Matthew 23:1-12; Psalm 136; "I Have Promised," by Ruebush, by Prospect Street church choir; prayer and benediction; doxology; postlude, "Song of Triumph," by Rogers, Mrs. Smith.

A candlelight service will be conducted at the young people's meeting. Miss Janet Cover will be the speaker.

The calendar for the union series has been revised somewhat since the first announcement several weeks ago and the following is the revised order of services:

July 14, at First Evangelical and Reformed church, sermon by Rev. A. C. Gierke, of Forest Lawn Presbyterian church; July 21, at Central Christian church, sermon by Rev. E. H. Werth of First Evangelical and Reformed church; July 28, at First United Brethren church, sermon by Rev. H. C. Ahrens of Salem Evangelical and Reformed church; Aug. 4, at Salem Evangelical and Reformed church, sermon by Rev. E. H. Werth of First Evangelical and Reformed church; Aug. 11, at Salem Evangelical and Reformed church, sermon by Rev. E. H. Werth of First Evangelical and Reformed church; Aug. 18, at Trinity Baptist church, sermon by Dr. Harry L. Bell of Central Christian church; Aug. 25, young people's service at Epworth Methodist church; Sept. 1, at First Presbyterian church, sermon by Rev. Lawrence A. Wood of Trinity Baptist church. At all services young people of the church will be in charge of the union service at 7 o'clock on July 14 when the Epworth league of Prospect Street Methodist church will be in charge.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE TEXT FOR SUNDAY ANNOUNCED

The Golden text from Revelation 7:12 will provide the theme for services Sunday morning at the First Church of Christ, Scientist. The text is "Blessing and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might be unto our God forever and ever, Amen." The interpretation from the Christian Science text-book will be based on the following passages: "Blessing, Principle, Life, Truth, Love, Soul, Spirit, Mind, God has set His signet upon science, making it coordinate with all that is real and only with that which is harmonious and eternal. Sickness, sin, and death, being inharmonious, do not originate in God nor belong to His government. His law, rightly understood, destroys them."

"CALL TO PRAYER" TO BE SUNDAY MEETING THEME

A "call to prayer" meeting will be conducted Sunday night at 7:30 in the Sunday school rooms of Forest Lawn Presbyterian church. The meeting will be open to all who care to attend. William Burley will be in charge. At 9:45 a. m. Mr. and Mrs. James O'Dowd will give reports of the recent sessions of the Ohio synod and synodical at Wooster.

Gangster Role That's Different; On Week's Bill at Ohio.

Edward G. Robinson kids gangster in his new picture, "Brother Orchid," the Ohio's new picture through Monday. Little Caesar's up-to-date, doomed to spend most of his life cultivating a bed in a monastery. "Orchid," a tale of hysteria, tells the story of a man who gets mad at his mob and rubs out a party with a vengeance. Robinson and Ann Sothern, Humphrey Bogart, Allen Crisp and Ralph Bellamy are in the picture.

Robinson is the star of "Get Your Gun," one of the new pictures being shown. As "Man-Invader," Miss Robinson character who's altered her old lady in a tough-and-tumble grub-

OHIO THEATRE

IN COMEDY THRILLER AT PALACE

Bob Hope and Paulette Goddard have crossed their fingers for luck in the above scene from their new comedy thriller, "The Ghost Breakers," coming to the Palace Sunday for three days.

Bob Hope on Palace Bill In "The Ghost Breakers"

Radio Comedian and Paulette Goddard Have Leading Roles in Mystery-Comedy Thriller.

Gag-buster Bob Hope and Paulette Goddard head the cast of the new mystery-comedy thriller, "The Ghost Breakers," due at the Palace Sunday for three days. The last three days of the week will bring Bing Crosby's new film, "If I Had My Way."

The principal action of the thriller occurs in the eerie atmosphere of a supposedly haunted castle on an island off Cuba. The setting, occupying an entire studio stage, was built with all the mysterious contraptions, contrivances, Miss Goddard inherits the palace. Hope plays a radio gossip commentator who gets himself in a mess with a gangster, hides in a trunk in Miss Goddard's room and eventually finds himself delivered to her stateroom on a boat sailing for Cuba. He decides to accompany her on her adventure as a ghost breaker, a specialist in

Comedy On Marion Bill

"Road to Singapore" To Be Shown Two Days; Crosby, Hope, Lamour Starred.

"Road to Singapore," a bright and entertaining musical comedy starring Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour, has been booked for reshowings Sunday and Monday at the Marion. Jerry Colonna, popular favorite of the air, has much to do with the film's high percentage of laughs. Bing and Bob head for the South Seas to get away from girls, run smack into beautiful Dorothy and plunge madly in love. The other film on a double-feature bill will be "Ride a Crooked Mile."

Richard Greene, supported by Richard Dix, Brenda Joyce, Roland Young and Gladys George, starred in the drama, "Here I Am a Stranger," which will be brought back Tuesday and Wednesday on a bill with "Adventure in Diamonds." Greene is cast as a youth grown to manhood in an opulent environment not rightfully his, who rediscovers his father and helps rehabilitate him. "Adventure in Diamonds" stars George Brent and Lisa Miranda in a comedy-melodrama.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday the features will be "Two Bright Boys," starring Jackie Cooper and Freddie Bartholomew, and a George O'Brien action drama, "Prairie Law."

PATROLMAN FLOORED IN DELAWARE FIGHT

3 Jailed After Street Brawl That Ties Up Traffic.

Special to The Star
DELAWARE, July 6.—Three Delaware persons were charged with intoxication and resisting an officer after staging a street brawl that tied up traffic and otherwise marred what would have been one of Delaware's safest and sanest Fourth of July records.

George Rowland, 23, his sister, Mrs. Edna White, 22, and Virgil Douglas, all of Delaware, were taken into custody in a grill room by a policeman called there by an attendant who said they were having "a squabble among themselves." Handcuffs had to be put on Rowlands and his sister and officers had to forcibly eject the trio from the establishment. Once outside the resistance mounted to fury, police reported. The patrolman holding Rowland and his sister was thrown to the ground in the scuffle and had some of his hair pulled out by Mrs. White, police said. A city fireman held the two until the officer could regain his feet.

Douglas tried to enter the scuffle in behalf of the other two and the patrolman had to use his mace to quiet him. Douglas struck at the officer, police reported, and when he missed his fist crashed through a glass in an automobile owned by Dunard Higgenbotham of Radnor.

Meanwhile, a large crowd had gathered and traffic was stalled while motorists and pedestrians rushed to view the fight. The two arresting officers were scratched and had their clothing torn in the scuffle. After Rowland and his sister were locked in jail the patrolman and Sheriff M. F. Pinney found Douglas in a nearby restaurant and took him into custody. A physician took about 10 stitches to close the head and hand wounds from the cuts by the mace and the automobile glass. Another member of the Rowland family, Charles, was pinned in jail yesterday morning when he wandered in seeking to visit his brother and sister. Police said he would be charged with intoxication.
